"Scout work IS Church work!"

“When you want something done, ‘Don’t do it yourself’ is a good motto for Scoutmasters.”

"Scouting IS the activity arm of the Aaronic Priesthood."

“It is one of the choicest experiences in my life to serve in and participate in Scouting, which I have done for almost seventy years”

“A Scout's first duty is to God.”

“Success in training boys depends largely on the Scoutmaster’s own personal example.”

“Let me affirm that the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints has not diminished in any way its support of the Scouting movement.”

“Scouters, through the Scout program, can go out and reach boys that cannot be reached otherwise.”

"Scouting is no longer on trial. It is an economically, socially, and spiritually sound program. It builds men of character and spirituality, and trains them for citizenship and leadership responsibility. . . . It is an inspired program for a demanding time. This is that time!”

“You cannot divorce Church work from Scouting. When you are building Scouting in your boys, you are building the work of God and helping to establish the kingdom on the earth.”

"I love the Scouting movement. The promise of the Scout Oath and the twelve points of the Scout Law point young men along the path of being prepared for the 21st century. They provide a solid and powerful magnetic force toward development of a well-rounded and noteworthy character that counts.”

“When a boy finds someone who takes and interest in him, he responds and follows”

"Scouting is no longer on trial. It is an economically, socially, and spiritually sound program. It builds men of character and spirituality, and trains them for citizenship and leadership responsibility. . . . It is an inspired program for a demanding time. This is that time!”

“Show me a poorly uniformed Troop and I will show you a poorly uniformed leader.”

“Trained—they need to be trained, not only by the Church, but as well by Boy Scouts of America within the districts and council.

“I commend you leaders of boys, for you demonstrate by your lives that the greatest gift a man can give a boy is his ‘willingness to share a part of his life with him.”

“Time—they need to have time to be a leader of boys.

“Tenure—short tenure if they don't enjoy the work and are not willing to put in the time necessary, and long tenure if they love the young men and want to serve them with all their hearts and souls.”

"Scouting is a powerful magnetic force toward development of a well-rounded and noteworthy character that counts.”

“The Scoutmaster teaches boys to play the game by doing so himself.”

"Scouting is no longer on trial. It is an economically, socially, and spiritually sound program. It builds men of character and spirituality, and trains them for citizenship and leadership responsibility. . . . It is an inspired program for a demanding time. This is that time!”

"There are four things that are absolutely essential in a great Scout leader. I call them the four T's:

1. Testimony—that they have a testimony of the Lord Jesus Christ, His Atonement, and that this Church is God's Church.

2. Trained—they need to be trained, not only by the Church, but as well by Boy Scouts of America within the districts and council.

3. Time—they need to have time to be a leader of boys.

4. Tenure—short tenure if they don't enjoy the work and are not willing to put in the time necessary, and long tenure if they love the young men and want to serve them with all their hearts and souls.”

“The bishop's most positive impact on youth comes in informal settings, activities, Scouting, service projects, athletics—real-life settings where they get to know him as a man. . . .
